

Kim Woo-Young 金祐暎

Kim Woo-Young (b. 1960) was born in Busan, Korea, and received his B.A. and M.F.A. in Urban Design and Industrial Design from Hongik University. Continuing his studies he soon enrolled at the School of Visual Arts in New York City and received his B.F.A. and M.F.A. in photography. Not only is he a mature photographer, but also a trained architect, city planner, and pioneer in revolutionizing the style of photography in Korea. His years in New York gave him the opportunity to experiment with different techniques and mediums in photography. His images of nature taken in the rain resulted in an illusion of deeper dimension, using other methods such as formation in collage or painting with the composition of charcoal and lacquer on photographic paper. One major modification was presenting images of nature in an abstract form onto an acrylic panel through silk-screen printing. Kim's works have been presented in art centers, museums, and galleries including VOLTA in New York, Gallery Simon, and COEX in Korea. His works are also collected by organizations such as the Seoul Museum of Art, Leeum Samsung Foundation, and HANA Bank.

金祐鏞於 1960 年出生於韓國港口城市釜山。他在弘益大學獲得了城市設計學士學位和工業設計藝術碩士學位。取得碩士學位後，他於紐約市視覺藝術學院進修，並獲得了攝影藝術學士學位和藝術碩士學。金氏不但是是一位擁有多年經驗的攝影師，也是一位出色的建築師、城市設計師和韓國新派攝影風格的先鋒。他多年來在紐約的經驗為他帶來不同試驗攝影媒體和技術的機會。金氏利用拼貼方法和以木炭及油漆畫在攝影紙上，為拍攝雨中的影像創造了如幻象般的深度；另一個重大修改是利用絲網印刷將大自然的抽象影像印上亞加力板。金氏的作品曾在美國的 VOLTA New York、韓國的 Gallery Simon 和韓國的 COEX 展出。他的作品更被首爾藝術博物館、Leeum 三星基金會和韓亞銀行等團體收藏。
